Values

Our values are necessary to ensure that we provide outstanding service and maintain our independence. The NERI strive to achieve excellence in the quality of our work, guided by these values:

Respect: we respect the dignity and uniqueness of each person whom we meet, and we accept people for who they are and for where they are in their journey through life.

Education: we place great value on learning and education, so we strive to provide flexible and accessible opportunities for learning.

Collaboration: we work with other economic agencies as an effective way of providing more economic research and analysis.

Act with integrity and principle - We remain true to our mission and work hard to produce quality research papers.

Excellence - We strive to provide high-quality content and strategies, basing our insights on experience, knowledge and data.
